Deaths and Funerals.

Francis W. Peck, aged 70 years, died yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Thomas Drew, 210 Ogden street, after a protracted illness. The deceased was well known in East Bridgeport where he had resided the most of his life.

Funeral services over the remains of George B. Nickerson, who was formerly a messenger between this city and New York for a number of years, were held yesterday afternoon at his late home, 433 Warren street, at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. W. B. Stoskopf, rector of Trinity Episcopal church, officiating. Interment was in Lakeview cemetery.

The funeral of John Mullane was largely attended yesterday morning from his late home in Broad street, at 8:30 o'clock and from the Sacred Heart church at 9, where Rev. William Fitzgerald sang a high mass of requiem. The pall bearers were all grandchildren of the deceased. Interment was in St. Michael's cemetery.

SHOT AND KILLED WIFE

MISTAKING HER FOR BURGLAR.
Indianapolis, Ind., May 28.—Mistaking her for a burglar, George W. Thompson Wednesday night shot and killed his wife at his home, in East Tenth street.

Thompson went to bed early, leaving his wife down stairs sewing. Later she entered the room carrying a lighted match. Thompson said he awoke, thought the light was from a burglar's lantern, took a revolver from under his pillow and fired twice in the direction of the light. Thompson is held at the police station for fear he will harm himself.

FERRYBOAT AGROUND

AT GOVERNORS ISLAND.
New York, May 28.—The Governors Island ferryboat Shinnecock was disabled by a broken rudder on the trip from the island early today. The ferryboat went aground. The passengers were taken off in small boats.

TORTURED BY REMORSE

WIFE MURDERER SHOTS HIMSELF.
Boston, May 28.—Tortured by remorse, Giacinto Pelosi, who shot his wife to death in their East End home here on May 19 and who has since eluded the police, returned to the scene of his crime and sent a bullet through his head. He is dying at the city hospital. Pelosi was madly infatuated with his wife but believed her unfaithful. On the night of May 15 he upbraided her and in the quarrel shot her to death. Then he disappeared leaving a pencilled note in Italian avowing the killing and giving her unfaithfulness as the reason. Since that time he has been lost to the police until his suicide shot was heard early today.
